Strauss & Troy Hosts Commercial Real Estate Development Seminar

Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky city managers and real estate developers will share their ideas for downtown development

CINCINNATI—Greater Cincinnati law firm Strauss & Troy (www.strausstroy.com) is hosting a downtown real estate development seminar, entitled Building the Future Together! New Developments in Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky Real Estate. The seminar is scheduled for Wednesday, June 23, from 11 AM to 1:30 PM at the Federal Reserve Building, 150 East Fourth Street in Cincinnati.

The seminar will focus on plans for redeveloping Cincinnati's Fountain Square, Riverfront West development in Covington, changes to Cincinnati's Permit and Development Process, and the continuing effort to build a cooperative downtown development relationship between Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky. Speakers will include: Greg Jarvis, Covington City Manager; Scott Stiles, Cincinnati Assistant City Manager; Wally Pagan, Director of South Bank Partners; and Pam Middendorff, 3CDC Project Manager for the Fountain Square Development Plan.
